YORK COUNTY
SPECIAL OLYMPICS

At almost 70 years old, York's own Loretta Claiborne has done it again! This time, she has won Gold for women's singles tennis at the Special Olympics World Games in Berlin, Germany. She also brought home a bronze medal for women's doubles tennis with teammate Heidi Sand. Amazingly, this was only her first time competing in tennis.

Loretta first entered the Special Olympics in 1970 and has now competed in over 300 local and state events, as well as 6 Special Olympics World Games. Internationally, she has one Gold medal each in the mile and 3000 meter runs, and 2 Gold medals each in bowling and the half-marathon. She also holds 3 Silver medals in the 3000 and 5000 meter runs, and figure skating, with a Bronze medal in the 1500 meter run.

Born partially blind and intellectually challenged to a large, poor, single-parent family, Loretta credits sports and those who encouraged her with making her the inspiring person that she is today. Beyond her Special Olympics accolades, she has completed 26 marathons, holds a 4th degree black belt in Karate, has won the ESPY - Arthur Ashe Award for Courage, and been recognized by 5 presidents. She also has 5 local, state, and national Hall of Fame inductions, a Tedx Talk, and 3 honorary doctorate degrees.
